

ALBUQUERQUE'S RAPID GROWTH

Twenty-Nine New Houses Now Under Course of Construction

AND TWENTY-SEVEN LOTS SOLD IN THE EASTERN ADDITION

Highlands, Since October 1st.

The oldest-timers are publicly asserting that during their twenty years stay in the vicinity of the present thriving city of Albuquerque, they have never before seen such activity in real estate sales. The Surety Investment company has sold twenty-nine lots in the Eastern addition since the first of the month, and report twenty-seven new houses now under course of construction in that addition alone, with many more contemplated.

Nearly every owner is figuring on the improvement of his holdings.

These lots are 50x142 feet, level, and just high enough to guarantee good sewerage. The prices range from $100 to $150 and $200 per lot, sold on the installment plan of $10 down and the balance in payments of $1 per week.

Call at the office of the Surety Investment company, owners, for printed plan. Office, 110 South Second street. D. K. B. Sellers, Manager.

"HELD FOR A MILLION OR BAD LUCK TO THE RICH"

Act I—"I see your $1,000,000 and will raise you $1,000,000 more."

Act II—"Well, boys, that was easy I had only a pair of deuces."

Act III—"Hands up, gentlemen! John W. Gates, you are my prisoner!"

Act IV—"Who are you?" "Who am I? I am Pat Crowe, the celebrated kidnaper."

Act V—"Say, Pat, I'll bet this money against your gun that you're fooling. Let's see your gun."

Act VI—"Ah, thank you, Mr. Crowe. I am sorry I can't wait any longer, but I have an engagement at 4. Good-bye!"

HEARST SMELTER CHANGES HANDS

COMANCHE COMPANY, THE NEW OWNERS, GETTING READY TO OPERATE ON A LARGE SCALE.

A correspondent writing to the Denver News from Silver City, says: The Comanche company, which is operating a smelter here, is installing a new 25-ton stack, which will soon be ready for operation. Since this company purchased the Hearst smelter here and the mines at Pinos Altos, it has been preparing for a systematic operation of the properties. A narrow gauge railroad is being built from the smelter here to the mines at Pinos Altos, a distance of about thirteen miles, so that the cost of getting ore from the mines to the smelter will be reduced considerably from the rate paid freighters now. The grade of the railroad is completed and is being laid. It is expected that the road will be in operation by the end of this month. This will enable operators at Pinos Altos to mine and ship lower grade ore than has heretofore been mined in this camp, which is one of the oldest gold camps in New Mexico, having been a producer for more than forty years.

Some very fine silver ore is now being mined in the Florida Flat near the old Bronson 76 mine, which produced about $2,000,000 in silver from the time of its discovery in 1876 until it was closed down some years ago.

The Burro Mountain Copper company is handling about 150 tons of ore a day in its mill at Leopold and shipping the concentrates to Colorado for treatment. It is expected that when the present contract expires the concentrates will be smelted here, so that the cost of transporting the output will be very materially reduced.

The production of the mines in the Mogollon district is greater now than it has been for some years and preparations are being made to resume work on several properties which are now idle. Talk of building a railroad from this place to Mogollon has been revived since the Pinos Altos road was commenced and should this be done the output of the mines at Mogollon and Coonry could be increased many fold. Most of the ore in this district is low grade and would not bear the expense of freight by wagon to this place, a distance of eighty miles. With railroad communication this camp would become one of the largest ore producers in the Southwest.

COME THOU ALMIGHTY KING

(No one knows who wrote this popular church hymn. In the greater number of books it is credited to Charles Wesley. That is because it first appeared in company with some of his hymns; but neither Wesley nor his contemporaries claimed it as his. There are some reasons for thinking that it was the work of the Rev. Martin Madon (1726-1790), an English Methodist clergyman well known both as a vivid orator and an enthusiastic musician. He practiced law for several years before being ordained. Later he was chaplain of the Lock Hospital. The hymn, with its title "Almighty King," has won for itself no uncertain place in the worship of American churches, although its use is by no means so general in other lands.)

Come, Thou Almighty King,
Help us Thy name to sing,
Help us to praise;
Father, all glorious,
O'er all victorious,
Come and reign over us,
Ancient of Days!

Come, Thou Incarnate Word,
Gird on Thy mighty sword;
Our prayer attend;
Come, and Thy people bless;
And give Thy word success;
Spirit of Holiness!
On us descend.

Come, Holy Comforter!
Thy sacred witness bear,
In this glad hour!
Then, who, almighty art,
Now rule in every heart,
And ne'er from us depart,
Spirit of Power!

To the great One in Three,
The highest praises be,
Hence evermore!
His sovereign majesty
May we in glory see,
And to eternity
Love and adore.

GOETZ'S PICALLI AT MALOY'S

FOUND BLEACHING ON THE PLAINS

REMAINS OF A MAN DISCOVERED NEAR RED LAKE, LINCOLN COUNTY.

Word was brought to White Oaks Sunday night that the body of a man had been discovered lying on the open plain in the vicinity of Red Lake, about twelve miles from that town.

Early Monday morning a coroner's jury was empaneled by Justice of the Peace H. B. Thompson and went at once to investigate. Upon arriving on the ground they found the body lying near the road and about two miles from the lake. From its appearance the man had evidently been dead for several days. He was apparently a person of about 45 years of age, well dressed and of medium height. By papers found in the pockets of his clothing it was learned that his name was William Douteau, or Schenck, of New York. There was also found a gold watch, some old and rare coins, a certificate of membership in the barbers' association at Watertown, second class railroad ticket from Schenectady, New York, to San Francisco, and an accident policy for $2,000. No other articles of value were discovered.

Indications are that he had wandered about for some time in the immediate vicinity where his body was found and had lain down several times before reaching the point where death overtook him. It is supposed he had become demented while traveling through the country and left the train at Ancho Station, on the El Paso & Southwestern railway in the night. He evidently wandered about on the range, which at this point is comparatively unoccupied, and had perished from hunger, thirst and exposure.

The remains were decomposed to such an extent that the removal of the body to town was impossible and it was buried on the spot. The barbers' association at Watertown, New York, was notified.

The coroner's jury decided that the man died from unknown causes, and so stated in their verdict.

Don't Borrow Trouble.
It is a bad habit to borrow anything, but the worst thing you can possibly borrow, is trouble. When sick, sore, heavy, weary, and worn-out by the pains and poisons of dyspepsia, biliousness, Bright's disease, and similar internal disorders, don't sit down and brood over your symptoms, but fly for relief to Electric Bitters. Here you will find sure and permanent relief from all your troubles, and your body will not be burdened by a load of debt disease. At all druggists. Price 50c. Guaranteed.

SPORTING... BREVITIES

Harvard interference is too slow. Time and again it failed in Saturday's game to keep up with the runner. Still, the crimson showed a decided improvement over the earlier form of the eleven.

Broken in health, dependent upon the charity of others. Michael F. Dwyer, a few years ago the foremost figure on the American turf, says of the racing game: "After more than twenty years of racing, I say that it is beyond human power to beat the ring. You can't do it, no matter how you try, for it is your judgment against others, theirs being backed with inside knowledge that you can't get." Dwyer lost $2,000,000 on the turf.

Will Lewis says he is willing to meet Joe Gans, the legitimate lightweight champion, or Joe Walcott, the welterweight champion, but that all other negro fighters are barred. Lewis says he will fight only the champions of the colored race.

The Princeton coaching staff took on three new members last week. "Bob" Galley, John Ward and ex-Capt. J. R. DeWitt.

Another sailor has entered the ring. He is from the U. S. S. Florida, and his name is Burke. Over in Philadelphia he defeated Eddie Heney in two rounds. Burke is fairly clever, but fights fast and furious and has a blow like the kick of a mule.

George Siler isn't throwing up his hat for Al Kaufman and cheering him on as the coming champion. Siler wants to wait and see whether Kaufman can stand the pace. In all his fights, thus far, Kaufman has been the punishing. He hits hard, is shifty and clever, but he hasn't been mauled around the ring yet. Siler harks back to the time Peter Maher landed on this turf, and howled over the men he met with the greatest of ease, but he quit when stung in the battle with Fitzsimmons at New Orleans. A lasting fighter must be able to receive as well as give punishment.

J. H. Martin, the American jockey, will ride for the Prince of Wales next year. He will receive $10,000 exclusive of the regular fees, regulated by the jockey club. The price also wanted Maher, but could not get him. Notre Dame will lose two foot ball stars—Paupe and Rounacker—because of alleged unfair treatment on the part of Coach McGlew. They are considered among the best linemen Notre Dame ever had.

"Yank" Kenney, former heavyweight prize fighter and sparring partner of James J. Corbett, is having trouble with the New York police. He is being held for impersonating an officer, but he quit when stung in the battle with Fitzsimmons at New Orleans. A lasting fighter must be able to receive as well as give punishment.

In an effort to produce an absolutely safe automobile, the largest makers of such machines have banded together to carry out scientific experiments and it is ascertained just what grades and compositions of metals are best for the production of a safe and reliable car.

Plans are under way for an international yacht race for small boats, between Germany and the United States, next summer, off Marblehead, Mass. It is proposed to establish a cup that shall be a perpetual challenge trophy.

Naturally, a challenge coming out of Louisville would war the colored brother. Marvin Hart says he will fight any white man in the world to a finish and that he will back the challenge with a side bet of $5,000.

Diplomatic relations may be resumed between Columbia and Wesleyan as soon as the order of amica and the plasters on the bruised players are removed.

Yale coaches are dissatisfied with the lineups of the team, and will devote their time to developing more speed in this department.

St. Louis and Kansas City horsemen have decided to contest the constitutionality of the anti-racing law in Missouri. The law grew out of a nasty fight among St. Louis race track gamblers.

MOST ANYTHING

From Josh Wice.

Man generally gets nothing for nothing; sometimes nothing for something; but I never heard of 'im gittin' somethin' for nothin'.

"Can't we do something to arouse a little interest?" asked the junior of the woman's college. "The college boys have so much fun and have their pictures in the paper all the time, and I think we should do something to show there is a live college spirit here."

"So do I," said the senior. "Can you suggest anything to do?" "Yes; let's have a chafetone bag rush."

"The police of Boston haven't solved that suit case mystery." "No, and they never will. I've had one on my hands for years and have never been able to solve it."

"What! In your home! You don't know where it is?" "Yes, I have been trying to find out how my wife manages to jam into her suit case all the clothes she has had to have help to push into her trunk."

"Yute" Latham says while he was asleep in the barber chair the other day, he was shaved with a dull razor, his hair combed the wrong way, his mustache turned upside down, his corn cutter taken from him, and he was otherwise maltreated.—West Lafayette (O.) Indicator.

A London newspaper says the English people are growing handsomer. Humph, there's isn't any other way they could grow.

One of the investigated insurance companies is passing around cards, on which is printed the plea, "Forget it." Something left off that card. It should read, "Forget it. It's gone."

Ye Correspondent Becomes Boastful. I am the champion slinger of this town, as everybody knows there is not a mortal on this earth who can stand up to my blows. As a heavy weight and solid grit you bet I am no slouch; they may come at me with iron bars, but I blame soon knock them out. My latest exhibition proves what I claim is true, my victim soon squealed. "That's enough," with both eyes black and blue.—Culpepper correspondence, Bellbrook (O.) Moon.

A Revenna, O., man claims a ghost played "Bells" on his piano at night. It must be a ghost. No human being would do such a thing.

"You call this a domestic cigar, do you?" "Yes, sir, that's a domestic cigar."

"You ought to stop buying your cigars from the employment agencies." "What's the matter with Brayson? He's wound up his business."

"That was the natural thing for him to do. He had let it run down."
